

A SWIMMING CHAMPION. (1908, April 19). Sunday Times(Sydney, NSW The Sunday Times MAGAZINE SECTION.

Miss Marion Simpson, of the Pyrmont Superior Public School, won the All Schools' Girls' Championship at the Public School Lady Teachers' Carnival, held in Drummoyne Baths on, the 4th inst. Marion though only in her 13th year already has some good swimming performances to her credit. Last season she started twice, winning on each occasion, and during the season just closing she won, besides the big event already mentioned, Pyrmont Public School Girls' Championship (50yds) and the All Schools' Handicap at East Sydney Ladies' Club's gala. Other good achievements were three firsts, one second, and one third in five Pyrmont Ladies' Club handicap, starting from scratch each time. Since she learned to swim 18 months ago, the young champion has, in 10 starts, scored seven wins, two seconds, and one third.

MARION SIMPSON : '46672
All Schools' Champion: